DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because "28" in Fig. 3c should be corrected as -- 128--. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Election/Restrictions

2. Applicant's election with traverse of elected species 1 in the reply filed on 10/4/04 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that there is no burden and a search directed to species 1 would inherently satisfy a search directed to an apparatus claimed in other species. This is not found persuasive because the mere fact that the claims are directed to multiple species is evidence that it poses a serious burden on examination. However, applicant's assertion that claims 1 and 41 being generic is persuasive.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

3. Claims 2-33, and 42-68 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 10/4/04.

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 1 and 41 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claim 1 of U. S. Patent No. 6,011,855 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: the claimed "a rigid emitter plate", "a thin piezoelectric film" "pressure means" and "electric contact means" (claim 41 only) are being positively and explicitly specified in claim 1 of patent '855.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1 and 41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Busch-Vishniac et al (US 4,429,193).

Regarding claims 1 and 41, Busch-Vishniac et al disclose a speaker device for emitting subsonic, sonic or ultrasonic compression waves, said device being comprised of: a rigid emitter plate (including 90, and 94) having an outer face oriented outward (the top of 90 toward to 98) and an inner face (96 facing 94), said emitter plate having a plurality of apertures (according to dictionary, aperture means open space; as shown in Figs. 8 and 9, a plurality of apertures located between posts 90) extending between the outer and inner faces; a thin piezoelectric film (92) disposed across the apertures of the emitter plate; electrical contact means (97,99) coupled to the piezoelectric film (92) for providing an applied electrical input (from 100); and pressure means (the pressure means is inherently included to force the film to be shaped as shown in Fig. 8) coupled to the rigid emitter plate for developing a positive biasing pressure with respect to the thin film (92) at the apertures to distend the film into an arcuate emitter configuration capable of constricting and extending in response to variations in the applied electrical input at the piezoelectric film to thereby create a compression wave in a surrounding environment.
